

OHIO SOYBEAN
ASSOCIATION

OHIO SOYBEAN HOMETOWN TOUR

Presented in collaboration with the Ashtabula, Geauga, Lake, and Trumbull County Farm Bureaus.

December 4, 2025

Magyar Farms - 2701 Cream Ridge Road. Orwell, OH 44076
2:00pm – 6:00pm

Register at www.soyohio.org/hometown

Agenda

2:00 PM – Welcome

2:10 PM – The Trade Situation: Planning to Move the Pile – Brianna Metts, Industry Affairs Manager at U.S. Soy Export Council (USSEC)

- USSEC works to create opportunities and build strong relationships that enhance global presence and impact of U.S. Soy. Learn about the work USSEC is doing and emerging international markets for U.S. and Ohio soybeans.

3:00 PM - Farm Financials: Farm Operations in a Tight Margin Environment – Brenda Deluca, Farm Credit Mid-America

- Learn about key considerations for farm operations when costs are high and commodity prices are low, including evaluating opportunities for generating new revenue sources on the farm.

3:30 PM - Your Soy Checkoff Working for You: Airable Labs, Commercializing New Products, Driving New Soy Demand – Barry McGraw, Founder and Chief Laboratory Officer of Airable Research Lab and Scott Porter, CEO and Co-Founder of Dynamic Green Products (DGP)

- The story of Airable is a story of innovation and collaboration that is creating new domestic markets for soy-based products. Airable CLO joins with DGP CEO to discuss soy-based bio product commercialization.

4:15 PM – Policy Points Farmer Leader Panel: A Look at Key Developments in Farm Policy – Jeff Magyar, Ashtabula County; Adele Flynn, Lorain County; Moderated by Ohio Soybean Association Senior Policy Director Brandon Kern

- A look at key changes made in 2025 and a look ahead to 2026.

5:00 PM – Reception with Holiday Cheer

- Enjoy time connecting with your neighbors and area farmers. Hors d'oeuvres, beer, wine and other holiday refreshments will be served.

THANK YOU TO OUR OHIO SOYBEAN HOMETOWN TOUR SPONSORS!

farmCREDIT
MID-AMERICA

OHIO SOYBEAN
COUNCIL

